ON THE CORNER 5th Ave. and Church St.

J. C. McAdams officiated. Miss Sallie Commons spent last Sunday at Haley assisting Rev. J. A. Crump with his music at the A. M. E. Church. The Turner Normal team won two victories last Saturday playing two different clubs, Mullins Chapel and Flat Creek. It was a double-header. The score was 11 to 3, and 7 to 16. The closing of the public school takes place this week. Dr. J. A. Rainey, an old Shelbyville boy who has just completed his course at Meharry, will speak one night. Mrs. J. A. Jones is expected home this week from Chicago, where she went to witness the marriage of her daughter, Miss Dora. The concert at the First Baptist Church last Friday night was a decided success. Several stunning hits were made by the elderly ladies in the cast. The grand bench rally to take place next Sunday at the A. M. E. Church promises to be an interesting affair. The people seem determined to get the new pews. Dr. J. Q. Johnson, the pastor, is turning every stone to make the rally a success. It seems from the general stir out at Turner Normal that the commencement will be a most brilliant affair. The Odd Fellows will have their annual sermon next Sunday at the First Baptist Church, Rev. A. O'Neill officiating. The Christian Church will have its annual meeting next Sunday. Miss Sallie Byers, of Turner Normal, left for her home, Trenton, Ky., Tuesday, on account of sickness in the family.
